

1. List all Staff who are Terminal workers working at a specific Terminal.
2. Incorporate certain passengers to order tickets with their respected payment method.
3. Incorporate an entry in the invoice that is ordered by a passenger showing their info such as tickets and payment used.
4. Pick a shift number and edit its days, the staff with that shift number will then have the days updated formatted in (Mon- Sun).
5. Ability to register and manage passenger account profiles such as payment, user information and tickets orders or cancels.
6. Delete a passenger account and the account information associated with it such as payments, tickets and luggage.
7. Incorporate a system to track luggage from passenger to its associated flight.
8. Provide a list of passengers associated with a flight.
9. List airlines associated with what lounge and terminal.
10. Incorporate a log of payments done by the passenger during their visit to the terminal.
11. Show a list of restaurants and stores in each terminal in descending order.
12. List the staff who are working on which part of the terminal and their roles.
13. List the stores that are present in more than one terminal.
14. Incorporate a list of restaurants who are popular among each terminal
15. Track staff skill sets and preferences and shift availability in the database to match them with the best fit roles within their respective airline.
16. Incorporate a List to show the lounge number and their associated airline company.